

24 responses

SUMMARY

INDIVIDUAL

Accepting responses

What age and content area do you teach?

23 responses

Check all areas where you have concerns about Bethel students' health.

23 responses

Please list your top 2-3 concerns about your students' health (no names, please).

21 responses

| |
|---|
| nutrition, parental knowledge |
| mental/emotional health, dietary behaviors, marijuana use |
| Alcohol, drugs, and diet |
| hygiene |
| emotional/mental health & drug use |
| hygiene, Nutrition knowlege |
| Mental health, hygiene, physical activity |
| Emotional, Lack of Parental Knowledge and Understanding of Child Harming self |
| Hygiene and healthy eating habits. |
| Lack of perception of harm re: Marijuana, coping skills and resilience, self-esteem |
| Mental health and substance abuse |
| Use of drugs, dietary |

| |
|---|
| Nutrition and Physical activity (away from screens) |
| nutrition and mental and emotional health |
| physical activity, safety, and nutrition |
| MS- hygiene and getting caught in downward-drama spirals. HS- alcohol. |
| outside activity! Snack choices! Dietary Behaviors/Self Image |
| Poor diet, sedentary lifestyle/too much electronics |
| Lack of nutritious lunches, lack of emotional health awareness and resources in the home. |
| 1. Healthy Relationships 2. Safe Sexual Practices 3. Healthy Lifestyle - (drug and alcohol abuse, eating habits, exercise) |
| Substance use (mostly among older students), consumption of sugary/unhealthy foods, and lack of time spent outside of school doing enriching activities |

Below is a list of skills required in the National Health Education Standards. Please check the top 2-3 skills you believe our students need to improve upon.

24 responses

Feel free to share any extra comments or concerns. Thanks!

4 responses

This is a great idea. I hope that it helps!

over use of cell phones

As time goes on children are accessing technology way toooooo much, I'd like to put alternatives in place and educate children on alternatives

I would really like to stress the value of healthy relationships - family, friends, and relationships; especially considering most students don't have a positive examples of this at home.