

Student Safety Practice

Third and fourth graders practice how to properly fit bike helmets during a bike safety demonstration.

Kindergartners simulate smoke while they take turns practicing how to “get low and go” during a fire.

First graders practice how to “stop, look, and listen” before they cross the street.